

Only well trained certified interpreters should be employed for TRS It is no job for people who simply know some signs. RID or NAD certification should be required.